

Being a truckdriver, I feel that XM satellite radios weather and traffic is one the greatest things to happen, not only for convenience but for safety. If the National Association of Broadcasters would spend more time improving their programming instead of worrying about someone else they wouldn't have to worry about XM's growing popularity. Besides, I pay for the programming I receive from XM and I should be able to listen to whatever they broadcast.